BY CHARLES WASHINGTON

In a crowd pleaser the Rockets won over Green Tree 30-24. It was easily the best played game of the three in the Urban Senior Lge. at the old Omaha U. Saturday nite. Green Tree led until the end of the third when John Fountain potted on e in from the side of the court to tie the score at 17-17. Virgil Williams put Green Tree ahead 19-17 only to have Fountain and Crossley put in gift shots to tie the score again, 19-19. Rockets then went into the lead for the first time when Kenny Young made a setup. They never relinquished this lead. Stone made two quick baskets to cinch the game.

The crowd was reprimanded by Mart Thomas, an official, for booing the Green Tree and the officials. Thomas explained to the crowd that both teams were playing to win and if a decision was called against their favorite team it was not "like good sportsmen" to boo and it only hurt their team because they would have to be penalized a technical foul. He appealed to the crowd to continue to be the good sports they really were. He called a technical foul on the crowd.

Crossley and Talbert stood out on defense for the Rockets and Young led scorers with 10. V. Williams scored 14 for Green Tree. Eight of those 14 were free throws

You want the admiration of others, don't you? Then, use your head! Dull, dingy hair has a repelling influence on people. You yourself know that you don't turn your head and look a second time at someone whose hair is unkempt, discolored and drab-looking.

Despite the popular saying that "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" it is my belief that "Gentlemen Prefer Women" no matter what the color of their crowning glory. If it is a color—one color—any color that is attractive.

Look at your hair in the front, on the back of your head, and lifting several strands, look underneath. Is it streaky and vari-colored, is it spotty? Is it lovely because of its well-groomed appearance?

If you are disappointed in the way your hair looks, if the coloring does not suit you, apply an accredited coloring and see for yourself how much improved your appearance will be.

Don't be a stay-at-home, don't lose opportunities for happiness and romance, simply because you may have overlooked the appearance of your hair. It's so much a part of you but that is all the more reason for taking care of it—beautify your hair with regular treatment and a well-rounded diet.

The subject of proper foods for general health, as well as hair health, will be considered in a later column, so for the time being we shall think only about what daily routine will help to develop your hair so that you will be the envy of your friends, and the admiration of your masculine associates.

The small amount of effort expended in brushing your hair daily will pay handsome dividends. Use a strong bristled brush. Divide the hair into small sections (as if you were going to braid it) all over your head, and taking one part at a time, brush upward and outward with vigorous strokes. Keep this up until your scalp fairly tingles with life—you have already improved the circulation, and good circulation to the roots of your hair will result in stronger and healthier hair.

If your hair is dry, try oil treatments or shampoos. Keep out of the sun—on windy days, remember to wear some kind of covering on your head because the elements are hard on hair and render the problem of caring for the hair a most difficult one.

If your hair is oily, use egg shampoos to help brighten it, to bring out the sheen which is ordinarily hidden by the accumulation of oil from the scalp.

It is never good to scratch the head—instead, place your fingertips on your scalp and gently, but firmly, move the scalp backwards and forwards, and from side to side. This exercise has a stimulating effect and will reward you in hair beauty and health.

For the next several weeks, concentrate on your hair. It is a lot more beneficial to follow a few rules for beauty regularly, than to confuse the mind with many which, in the end, are forgotten because it is too hard to remember so much.

Don't go around envying others' beautiful hair when it is so easy to have beautiful hair yourself.

What are your beauty problems?

A Prominent Business Woman Praises Mme. C.J. Walker's Preparations

"I use Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations exclusively because I get results from them that I am unable to get from any other preparation," stated a well known business woman the other day.

The secret of the remarkable success of Mme. C. J. Walker's preparations is in the fact that they were blended by the late Madame C. J. Walker to reach certain definite conditions of the hair, skin and scalp, and today, after over thirty-five years on the market, they are growing increasingly popular, and notwithstanding the fact that the Company has always refused to reduce the price on these goods, they are still in demand everywhere.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Gossamer, although more than thirty-five years on the market, is still the leader in its field. The reason for this is because it not only serves as a scalp oil, but it gives the hair that silky sheen and natural gloss that is the delight of every woman.

Mme. C. J. Walker's Brown Face Powder is not just another Face Powder, but is the result of years of experimenting to produce the perfect blend to impart a velvety softness and at the same time cooling and refreshing. Just the thing for these hot days.

The Mme. C. J. Walker's wonderful preparations are sold by Walker Beauticians and Drug Stores everywhere, or you can write The Mme. C. J. Walker Mfg. Company, direct. Address: The Walker Building, Indianapolis, Indiana.
